EMPLOYMENT SERVICES OVERVIEW

Glenkirk Employment Services offer an array of supports to adults seeking employment including skills and abilities assessment, job readiness training, assistance with completing applications and job interviews, and community employment support.

Glenkirk job coaches specialize in finding personalized employment and training opportunities which are a match for each candidate's individualized interests and employment goals.

Our ever-expanding network of partner businesses offers community positions in the food service, clerical, and janitorial fields. Based on the candidates' interests, we can create new relationships with local employment partners to make sure each position is the right fit.

All Glenkirk employment opportunities include personalized support in the form of job development, resume building, and on-site job coaching, as necessary.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- On-site paid work & training
- Full and Part-time supported positions within OSDD and the Glenkirk Cafe
- Community employment job development and on-going coaching
